A Close Call.
Charles Damon and a lad named Janvyn, son of Emory Janvyn, of Illinois township, were guests at the Palace Hotel last night, and returned at an early hour. Mr. Damon recollects that he turned off the gas properly so far as he knew. At about 12 o'clock he awoke with a choking sensation, and immediately became aware of the fact that the room was filled with escaping gas. With some difficulty he arose and opened the door, when he found that the boy was greatly under the influence of the gas. He lay upon his back breathing very hard. Mr. Damon worked with the boy for some time, rolling him about on the bed, and finally got him awake and out of the room, when he revived in a short time. It was very fortunate that Mr. Damon awoke, as they both would undoubtedly have been asphyxiated in a short time. It seems that the gas had not been turned off completely.

A Little Mixed.
Agent Meredith, for the Champaign, Havana & Western road, is responsible for an embarrassing situation witnessed at the O. H. depot at 10 o'clock this forenoon. Undertaker Perle had arranged last night to attend the Leonard funeral and to have his hearse and carriages there to convey the body and parties to the church. This morning Meredith telephoned to Mr. Ballard telling him to not fail to have his hearse and carriages at the depot for a funeral party at 10 o'clock, but he did not give the name of the party. Supposing everything was regular, Mr. Ballard hitched up his rigs and was at the depot on time, and so was Perle. As there was only one body to receive attention, it was plainly apparent that something was wrong. Explanations followed, when it was developed that Meredith had made a grievous mistake, for which neither of the undertakers was responsible, but it was extremely annoying just the same. Mr. Ballard's hearse and carriages were taken back to the stables.

Not Guilty.
Austin Perry, the colored citizen at Mattoon, against whom a suit for $200 was brought by a colored man, because Perry refused to shave him, got a verdict in his favor. It was a test case, and the jury agreed that the plaintiff had no cause for action.

Will Not Pay to Work.
The expected six foot vein of coal at Sidney is a failure. When the shaft was down about 250 feet the miners had reached what they supposed was the six foot vein of coal, but a hurried blast showed the vein to be composed of four inches of coal, twenty five inches of black slate, about eighteen inches of soap stone, and the last two feet more coal. The development is a sore disappointment to many persons. The citizens of Sidney last Saturday raised a fund of $500, and will proceed at once to drill deeper and see if a paying vein of coal can not be found. The barbecue on the 29th, in honor of the opening of the first coal mine in Champaign county, has been postponed.

Ray Conducted the services at the funeral of the late Mrs. W. H. McLean, which took place last evening at 8 o'clock from the family residence, on South Main street. A large number of friends were present. The parents of the deceased, Rev. and Mrs. John Leeper, were in attendance, having come here several days ago. They accompanied the body to Indiana as did also the husband and two children, on the evening train. The deceased was 24 years of age.

The Drama to Night.
The Frederick Ward dramatic company which is to appear to night in "Drama" and "Pantomime", arrived at the St. Nicholas this noon from the west. The company had the pleasure of a call from the popular tragedian to day. He is a genial pleasant gentleman and chats contentiously with all whom he meets. Mr. Ward is a great friend and admirer of John McCallough. He was long associated with John on the stage, and the mention of his name fills his heart with sorrow. Mr. Ward and company appeared last night at Jacksonville. The Journal of that city said of the performance:

"We are safe in saying that no better performance has ever been given in the history of our stage, and no better troupe of actors never played to more appreciative auditors, and so well pleased were they with the fact that they took occasion to mention it several times. During the performance throughout there was a sympathy of the most careful and judicious, together with unusual ability on the part of nearly every member of the cast. Witness the performance to night. It served seats $1.00, general admission 75c and 50c seats.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias is in session at Springfield this week. Decatur has a representative there. Chatting with a reporter, Mr. Burroughs, of Clinton, the Grand Chancellor, said: "During the year there have been 12 new lodges instituted in the state, and the order is in a more flourishing condition now than ever before. The Grand Lodge doesn't owe a dollar and has $4,000 loaned out at 8 per cent interest, and about $3,000 in the treasury. This is the first time in the history of the Grand Lodge that it ever had a dollar loaned. There are now 25 divisions of the Uniform rank, making the state rank third in the Supreme Lodge's jurisdiction. This is something to feel proud of, considering the rank is so young in the state. The Navarre Lodge of Springfield was the last lodge instituted under my authority. The order throughout the state this year has been very harmonious no disorders nor dissensions, and no appeals taken from the Grand Chancellors' decisions. Neither has there been a single subordination lodge trial—something remarkable and unusual. We have now 111 working lodges in the state and only one lodge surrendered its charter during the year. The Grand Lodge consists of one representative from each subordinate lodge, the Grand Lodge officers, two Supreme Lodge representatives, and one representative for the Past Chancellors. These, together with a number of Past Chancellors, who will be here to receive the Grand Lodge degree, will make a total attendance of nearly 300 persons. There is considerable important legislation to be accomplished and the lodge will probably remain in session about three days.

Results in Suits for Damages.
The three horse men, Given, Powers and Lewis, who were arrested and jailed here at the instance of Indiana parties, were released yesterday evening at the instance of three Hoosiers who came in on the afternoon train. The parties met last night and patched up a compromise, the Indiana parties taking the race horses back home with them. Powers owned one of the horses, on which there is a mortgage, and Mr. Given is part owner of the other animal. The parties arrested were taking them to Texas to participate in the races, but the Indiana chaps thought they would never again hear of their property, and so they had the journey southward stopped. Mr. Johns, attorney for Lewis & Given, has commenced suits for damages against the scared Hoosiers for false imprisonment. The cases will come up for trial at the January term of court.

THEIR FUTURE PLANS.
Senator Gas Hill outlines what the colored people propose to do.

By a million L. also.
Senator Gas Hill, chairman of the executive committee of the Illinois Colored Men's Association, has a ready begun the preliminary work towards a permanent and efficient organization of the colored voters of the entire state. He intends soon to visit the different cities and towns of the state organizing colored clubs where they do not already exist.

I think after a few months of good hard toil the executive committee will have things in good working order, and the entire strength as well as the political status of the colored voters of Illinois will be fully determined. We expect to have the best informed colored men in each town and city in the state to present a roster of the voters—those who are here, those who are out and out a spare toed Democrat. It will require some time but we will succeed before long in accomplishing what the executive committee think is now an important thing to do.

What about starting a paper as an organ for the colored people of the state? asked the reporter.

That has been some talk about starting a paper, remarked the Senator, and I presume the colored people begin to feel it. I think such a publication. The executive committee will take this matter in hand as soon as practical. If the paper is started, it will be published in Central Illinois will be decided upon as the place of publication.

AN INDIGESTIBLE NOTE.

How a Joker Was Compelled to Take a Veritable Choke

A Prussian army officer stationed at Berlin frequently had occasion to borrow money from an accommodating Jewish friend who only charged three or four per cent a month. As a general thing the officer, Baron von Pump, was able to meet his obligation on the day when to which he usually went to collect the money. He called at the Baron von Pump's room and presented the note.

Now, I have heretofore always been able to pay my note, but I have no money to pay this one. You will have to wait.

I do not want to wait, you don't say so. I have a note to pay, and I must pay it.

The New Haven Union calls the female head in New York a "lady," putting the case in this way "When a lady kills her husband with an ax, and assisted by her children cut him up in small pieces and burns them in her cooking stove, it does seem as if she were entitled to enjoy all the rights accorded to the tyrant man." Does the Union refer to burglars and murderers as gentle men?
